VOL. CVXIIII.—32. ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1913. PRICE, 2 CENTS

VIRGINIA BRANCH SUFFRAGE LEAGUE

Are Preparing Themselves For The Duties of Citizenship.

A V A S T PROGRAM.

Mrs. Clarke, Chairman of Committee Tells of Purposes and dleals of The Organization.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 7.—An extensive program of education and study in the principle of government, in sociology, and in public service has been mapped out by Mrs. Harvey Clarke, chairman of the program committee of the Richmond branch of the Equal Suffrage League of Virginia.

"The object of the league," said Mrs. Clarke, yesterday, "is to interest womne in the movement and to prpare them for the duties of citizenship against the time when the ballot is awarded them."

Mrs. Clarke gave a statement yesterday, setting forth the ideas, and ideals of the members of the Equal Suffrage League.

Her statement follows:

First: "Women suffragists the world over seem to forget that with their so-called rights go duties and responsibilities, one of which is to obey the law or take the consequences."

Second. "Not all, but some."

Third. "Even here in Virginia practically all the argument is as to the rights of woman, and little reference is made to the responsibilities of citizenship."

Fourth. "No injustice."

I speak as one has kept in touch with the suffrage movement ever since espousing it and before; for I; as a busy woman, was not willing to give up my time or active service to a cause which dealt primarily with the rights of women. For this reason I watched the reports of what suffragists were doing, and when I saw that they were discussing child welfare, temperance, pure food, health, education, and were seeking to serve the state in aspiring to the ballot, I put my energies into the cause. I am not an exception to the ranks, for in moving among the suffragists in ational conventions and the state conventions, and in our own city league work, I have found the great symphony of thought for social betterment.

Above all is this true of Virginia suffragists. We want the ballot for what we can do with the ballot. We want to serve as citizens for the uplift of the State.

AUTO CARNIVAL PLANS.

Unless the elements conspire to mar the opening of the week's automombile carnival Monday afternoon Washington will witness a mammoth automobile parade overshadowing anything of the kind ever attempted before in the National Capital.

Several automobile dealers interested in promoting the carnival stated yesterday that providing the weather was clear there would be at least 1,000 automobiles in the line of parade. Regardless of the weather, the dealers will participate in the parade, but inclement weather will naturally have a dampening effect upon the enthuiasm o fthe owners. Three or four of the dealers have made preparations to entre thirty cars in the parade.

A new florists shop will throw open its doors in Alexandria tomorrow when the Dunbarr Floral Company opens its new store at 822 King street. The many patrons of the firm will welcome their new and convenient location where an opportunity is given to show the many beautiful specimens of flowers which are raised by the firm. The assortment of flowers, plants and palms tomorrow will be exceptionally fine. Souvenirs will be presented to each visitor.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Mrs. Susie P. Beavers, 21 years old, early last night waded into the east branch of the Potomac river, at Washington, until the waters reached her chin. Then she turned and struggled back to the bank just as her husband appeared, breathless from, a hard run of several blocks. The patrol wagon was rushed to the scene, where the police found Frank Beavers supporting his wife, who was wet and muddy from head to feet, and evidently suffering intensely from cold. Beavers, who is 28 years old and an employe of the Washington Terminal Company, lived with his wife until a month ago, when they separated, she taking her baby daughter to live with her father, Geo. Watson. Early last night, it is said, they quarreled. After Beavers left her the woman made for the river. Somebody, noticing the direction she was taking and suspecting her purpose, found Beavers and informed him.

Mrs. Blanche O'Neal Green, of Middleboro, N. Y., sailed yesterday from New York to Europe, where she will be married to Eugene Newton Curtis, formerly rector of St. Barnabas' Episcopal Church at Roseville, N. J. Mrs. Green divorced her husband, William Green, formerly of Middletown. She made the acquaintance of Mr. Curtis when a communicant of St. Barnabas' Church. Last August Mr. Curtis resigned from the ministry, it being against the ethics of the Episcopal Church for a clergyman to wed a divorcee or for a divorce to remarry. Mrs. Green is a daughter of the late William F. O'Neal, of Middletown. once a foremost attorney in Orange county.

Irvin Henson, colored, twenty-nine years old, of Washington, dislocated his jaw while dining at a restaurant shortly after noon yesterday. The dislocation came as the result of a yawn of satisfaction, and not from the efforts of mastication. Surprised by the painful climax of his yawn, Henson sprang from the table and began to run about in circles, trying to close his mouth. A crowd of interested bystanders soon gathered. One of them notified Emergency Hospital that a man suffering from lockjaw needed medical attention. Dr. Zinkhan took Henson to the hospital in the ambulance, where his jaw was pushed into place.

Partly burned, the body of Mrs. John Clifton Williams, bride of a depty chancery court clerk, at Houston, Miss., was found at noon yesterday in an old pit under the kichen. The slayer had rifled the house of all jewelry, and, after hiding the body, pulled down all the shades and closed the doors. Mrs. Williams, who was Miss Bessie Farr, had been married only a few weeks. When Mr. Williams came home for the noon meal, and could not find his wife, he called over the telephone for Mrs. Farr, the mother. Then he found a trace leading to the pit.

A "Jim Crow" law applicable to steam railroads in Delaware was introduced in the House yesterday by Representative Owens, of Bridgeville, It is not thought the bill will get through the Legislature, as the Senate is in control of the Republicans, and Governor Miller is of the same political faith. The bill would require railroads to maintain either separate coaches for white and negro passengers, or cars divided by partitions.

Dr. William J. rlitz, of Hoboken, N. J., who brought suit against Mayor William J. Gaynor, of New York, for $7,500 for professional serviees rendered while the Mayor was in a hospital at Hoboken after he had been shot on an ocean steamer, was awarded $5,800 yesterday at Trenton, N. J. by a jury in the United States court.

An innovation in lunch delivery by the agency of the parcel post was started Wednesday in Chicago when a downtown restaurateur sent out 300 meals in pasteboard packages to brokers, bankers, real estate men, clerks and those of other occupations. The packages were mailed so that they would be delivered shortly before the noon hour. The idea was envolved as a solution of the short lunch period experienced by many business men. Although the scheme was tried only as an experiment, it will be continued permanently if the patronage warrants, says the originator.

WM. ROCKEFELLER CORNERED TODAY

Oil Magnate Bombarded With Interogations on Island in Atlantic.

HISTORY IMPORTANT.

Millioanire Located After Long Chase by Pujo Money Trust Investiing Committee.

Brunswick, Ga., Feb. 7.—On an island six miles out in the Atlantic William Rockefeler, Standard Oil magnate, was reached today after an eight months' chase by the Pujo Money Trust investigating committee and subjected to a quizzing, which, the probers hope, will throw light on the great financial octopus of the nation.

Uncle Sam and the mighty power of Standard Oil Grappled, and Uncle Sam triumphed. Only in the fact that he magnate caused the Pujo examiners to come to him, instead of his going to Washington to testify was the oli chief victorious—and this only because of his health.

Rockefeller's examinations was scheduled to begin about noon today. From ten minutes to an hour, according to the physical ability of the oil magnate to stand the strain, was the proposed length of his questioning.

When the train of the Pujo party pulled in a large part of Brunswick's 20,000 inhabitants crowded the depot and almost mobbed the visitors. A score of newspaper reporters and photographers from Atlanta, Savannah, and nearby Southern cities struggled for a word with the examiners, seeking a chance to accompany the party and be present at Rockefeller's examination.

Aftr concluding with Rockefeller, the examiners planned to take lunch at the Jekly Island Club, and return to Brunswick at 4:30 on the club steamer, to take a night rain for the North. The party will arrive in Washington about 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

LECTURE ON CONSERVATISM.

On the evening of the tenth at 8 o'clock at Christ Church Parish Hall under the auspices of The Cameron Club, Mr. Overton Price will deliver a most interesting talk on "Conservatism," Mr. Price, quite a traveled man, recently returned from South America and having made an extensive tour throughout the west, has been able to collect a number of views which will be most pleasing to see and to hear of. The Cameron Club gives this lecture complimentary to its members and their freinds and an especially cordial invitation is extended to all who have been in sympathy with the club's movements and who have so graciously subscribed to the different lectures and lecture courses hitherto given by the club. The Cameron Club through the courtesy of Mr. Price is very proud to be able to fulfill its obligations to friends and promises them a rare treat on Monday night next.

ON TRIAL FOR MURDER.

Petersburg Jury to Hear Case of Thomas Newsome.

Emporia, Va., Feb. 7. — Thomas Newsom, charged with murdering Wade Ferguson, a young clerk in a store here, has been placed on trial in the Circuit Court here, a large crowd of spectators being in attendance.

E. P. Buford, counsel for the defense, requested that a jury be summoned from some other county or town, asserting that it was practically impossible to select a jury of Greensville county citizens, owing to the great amount of adverse criticism.

Judge Jesse F. West then ordered a venire from Petersburg. Thirty veniremen who were examined Wednesday frankly admitted that they had formed an opinion of the case and were excused.

William Banks, a negro, indicted on the charge of murdering Richard Cook, another negro, is to be tried at the present term of court.

JUVENILE PRISONERS.

Small Boys Charged With Entering a House And Stealing Parts of Graphophones.

Howard Mayhugh, Wilmer Hall and George Leake were arrested yesterday by Sergeant Scott and Officer Nicholson to answer the charge of entering house No. 215 Commerce street and taking therefrom parts of graphophones and selling them to a second-hand dealer.

The youngsters were arraigned in the Police Court this morning when it was shown that the boys aware of the fact that the house was unoccupied and the contents had been levied on by David Robey to satisfy the rent charges, forced a door, entered and carried off the articles. They later indulged in soup at a lunch house in the neighborhood.

The Mayhugh boy was exonerated of the charge of being a party to the larceny, and was dismissed, as was also the Hall boy upon his mother assuring the court she would place him in a Washington institution. Leake was turned over to his mother for correction. Hall, it will be remembered, was one of the youths who recently entered a house on upper Prince street and carried away several bottles of blackberry wine.

Cases against small children are the most perplexing that come before the Police Court. After they have been brought before the bar the manner of disposing of them is the issue before the justice. There would be weeping and wailing on the part of their parents were the prisoners sent to the reform school, and they are of too tender years to be held amenable for crime. Hence they are generally turned over to their parents for correction.

In reply to questions propounded by Justice Caton the boys admitted they had drawn their inspiration from moving pictures.

PLAN NEW CLUB HOUSE.

Collingwood Club Considernig the Purchase of Property.

A handsome new home on the Potomac river which will include all the features that have made country clubs so popular in other sections of the country, is planned by the Collingwood Club, a well known social organization of Alexandria, which includes in its membership a number of the prominent business men of the city. A meeting of the club was held last night at the Falstaff when the project was discussed, and report of committees were received. The present club house is located on the Potomac six miles below Alexandria, at Snowden's Station of the electric railway, where the club has an old-fashioned country mansion well adapted to club purposes and 155 acres of land. The present property is leased by the organization and if a suitable lease can be secured the present building will be remodelled and improvements to the property made. A proposition is also under consideration to buy a tract of land in the neighborhood of the present location, and two committees are engaged in inspectnig various tracks of land.

Many of the members of the club are owners of motor boats and a feature of the club life is outdoor sports on the river and land.

At the meeting last night it was decided to hold the annual city entertainment on March 27th, and the Elk's auditorium has been secured for that purpose.

DEATH OF A BRAKEMAN.

William C. Yeate, a brakesman on the Southern Railway, died at his residence, 216 north Patrick street, yesterday afternoon. The deceased was 26 years old. He was a native of Pittsylvania county, and his remains will be forwarded to Franklin Junction by B. Wheatley. Mr. Yeates had been married about two weeks. His death was caused by typhoid fever.

Washington, Feb. 7.—The condition ofe Rear Admiral Robert E. Peary, derwent a minor operation at his apartment in the Burlington Wednesday, was reported to be entirely satisfactory to his physician and members of his family. Dr. James F. Mitchell, who performed the operation, stated that his patient was resting easily and that he did not expect any serious developments.

TURKS ARE STILL BEING WORSTED

Town of Gallipoli is Held After a Desperate and Bloody Struggle.

ITALY SENDS SHIPS

Powers to Refuse aid to Belligerents Whose War Chests are Empty and Nearing End of Resources.

Constantinople, Feb. 7.—Desperate fighting was reported again today from the peninsula of Gallipoli,where the Bulgarians are attempting to open a way for the Greek fleet up the Dardanelles. It was said that the Bulgarians held all the villages that they have captured. The Turks, though, were said to be making a determined stand at Gallipoli.

Semi-official statements confirmed the report that the Turks lost several thousand men in yesterday's battle, which was admitted to be a defeat for the Ottomans. Sofia dispatches place the Turkish losses at five thousand killed and wounded.

Rome, Feb. 7.—When the Italian cruisers Pisa and San Marco were ordered to the Bosphorus, it was unofficially said today, their commanders were not only ordered to give assistance to Ialian subjects in Constantinople, but were told to offer the Italian vesel as a refuge for the Sultan Mohammed V, of the Ottoman man empire if the ruler deemed it advisable to quit the capital.

London,Feb. 7.—Financial weakness will end the Balkan war more quickly than losses on the field and the destruction of cities in the opinion of the ambassadors of the powers, and it was believed today that all Europewould refuse to loan money either to Turkey or the allies until peace is made.

Greece, Bulgaria, Montenegro, and Servia are believed to be almost as hard up as is the Ottoman empire, and for lack of the most important and necesary sinews of war, it is thought that negotiations will be resumed within a week.

Dispatches from Belgrade said that the bombardment of Adrianople continued today, but without percep-

State Debt.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 7.—A decidedly analogous case to State Auditor Moore's contention in the Richmond Fredericksburg and Potomac Railway tax controversy, is the state debt question in which Virginia and West Virginia are so vitally interested.

Mr. Moore's original contention was that he proposed settlement of the tax question with the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad as outlined by the conferees appointed by the State legislature, was in the form of a compromise, and therefore unconstitutional, the constitution for bidding a compromise of a state debt. The case is still pending in the courts, and therefore no fixed debt is due the state.

The Supreme Court of the United States in rendering an opinion, practically in favor of Virginia, recommends that the two sovereign States get together in a compromise agreement of the amount to be paid. The court suggested a basis of settlement and fixed the amount of principal due Virginia by West Virginiania and its part of the debt at nearly $8,000,000. The court, however, before entering nito the decree recommended that the two states have a conference and agree upon a compromise amount to be paid.

A prominent attorney says that the two cases in which the people of the state at large are interested were of a decidedly analogous achracter, and that it was certainly the opinion of the highest tribunal in the United States that an amount claimed to be due by the state, and which was still pending in the courts, could be properly and legally compromised.

Auditor Moore's action in withdrawing his objection in the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac case, has been highly commended.

PRESIDENT-ELECT AND EXTRA SESSION

Will Discuss Necessary Legislation With Democratic Leaders.

HIS DECISIONS LATER.

Considers Tariff, Anti-Trust Laws and Currency Reforms Most Important Party Pledges.

Princeton, N. J., Feb. 7.—President-elect Wilson has not decided what legislation he will recommend to the extra session of Congress besides the tariff. Thist statement was made when he was asked concerning reports from Washington to the effect that he would urge the next Congress to take up currency reform.

It is known Mr. Wilson considers the tariff, antitrust legislation and currency reform as the three principal subjects upon which the platform pledges should be carried out as quickly as possible. He expects to learn from party leaders in Congress just what it would be practicable to take up at the extra session. Mr. Wilson said he would make no decision until after he was inaugurated and had an opportunity to get closer to the legislators.

The Governor spent yesterday here working on his inaugural address. He took a long walk in the chilly air, and was invigorated by it. His brother, Joseph R. Wilson, of the Nashville Banner, called on him last night, leaving at a late hour for Washington.

Governor Wilson walked today unaccompanied by secret service men from his home to the Princeton University library to work there upon his inaugural address.

"I guess I can walk the streets of Princeton alone," he said smiling.

"I intend to be as brief as possible," he remarked "and I'll certainly read the address very fast if the weather is as cold as today."

EXCITEMENT ON A TRAIN

Negro Insults White Lady at Station in Washington and is Struck by Husband

Passengers on the train which was to have left Washington for Alexandria at 11:50 o'clock last night witnessed a thrilling scene about the time the train was scheduled to leave. A well known Alexandrian who was accompanied by his wife was about to get on. While ascending the steps a colored man who was with two colored women, appeared also, and the man rudely jostled the wife of the Alexandrian. The husband struck the negro, causing some excitement on the sidewalk in front of the station, and after the passengers had entered the car the negro seemed disposed to continue the trouble by using vile language toward the Alexandrian. Becoming bolder there was likelihood of a renewal of the difficulty when two other residents of this city came to the rescue of the man whose wife had been knocked aside by the darkey. A fight folowed, which caused great excitemnt. During the melee attempts were made to secure a policeman, but noen could be found and the crew kept the train at the station, not deeming it safe to start until the trouble had subsided. A policeman finally entered the car but he refused to arrest the negro who had precipitated the disorder, alleging that he had not witnessed the fight. He finally, however, agreed to take the darkey into custody upon the assurance that the Alexandrians would appear in the Police Court his morning and testify. The witnesses from this city went to Washington this morning and gave their testimony.

The negro who caused the disorder was arraigned in the court and the Justice, after hearing the evidence of the Alexandrian whose wife was jostled, imposed a fine of $25 upon the prisoner. If he fails to pay the assessement he will serve ninety days at Occoquan.

TAKES IN ALEXANDRIA

Baltimore District Will Absorb the Custom House of this City

It was officially stated at the Treasury Department, in Washington, yesterday that the reorganization of the customs districts, as recommended to Secretary MacVeagh for transmission to President Taft, enlarges the Baltimore district, so that it will include the ports of Georgetown, D. C.; Alexandria, Va., and the Maryland ports. The Cape Charles (Va.) port will be in the Virginia district.

The reorganization plans, as prepared by the customs division experts, have not been approved by Secretary MacVeagh. The papers are still in his hands awaiting his signature and transmission to the President. No serious changes are anticipated.

Baltimore will be the headquarters of the Baltimore or Maryland district. The collector of customs will be stationed in that city under the reorganization plan and will have deputies at all custom houses in his district, who will report directly to him.

The Virginia district will be composed of Norfolk, Newport News, Richmond, Cape Charles and Petersburg. The headquarters will be Norfolk, Portsmouth and Newport News. The collector will divide his time between the three cities and will have deputies in all the custom houses.

The business at each port will be transacted as before, and the only difference will be that the merged ports will not have a collector but a deputy. It is estimated that the plan will save the customs service $700,000 annually.

DEATH OF AN EX_SLAVE.

Said to Have Been Oldest Woman in State.

Culpeper, Va., Feb. 7.——Lucy Fry, colored, the oldest person in this section, and possibly in Virginia, died here today, aged 128 years. She was born a slave in 1785 in this State. Seeking refuge during the civil war in a distant Southern community, she made her way back to her native State and her own people. She was sold several times by successive slave own_ ers.

She said she once saw President George Washington and often gave many interesting details of the visit of General Lafayette of France, to Vir_ ginia when he was entertained at Culpeper. She was always a hard worker, and was active until within a short time of her death.

FORT NOW ASSURED.

Senate Passes Provision to Condemn Land at Cape Henry.

The action of the United States Senate in passing the fortification appropriation bill without either de_ bate or amendment ensures the con_ struction of a great fort at Cape Henry at the mouth of the Chesapeke Bay for the defense of the routes to Baltimore, Washington, Annapolis and Norfolk. The bill carried an item providing for the purchase or condem_ nation of about 300 acres of land ad_ joining the lighthouse at Cape Henry as a site for the proposed fort, which has been recommended by the Taft Defense Board and the army en_ gineers. It is estimated that it will take about a year to acquire the prop_ erty, and the first appropriation for actual construction of the defenses will be made in the next year's ap_ propriation bill. As the Senate did not amend the Fortification Bill, it will be engrossed and sent at once to President Taft for his signature. The fort will cost about $3,000,000.

ALLEGED SHANGHAIER.

Charge Made Against Norfolk Man By Well-to-Do Youths.

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 7.—Thomas Walsh,a Norfolk shipping agent, was arrested yesterday on the complaint of two youths, who say that Walsh shanghaied them on board the steam_ ship Dortmund, which sailed from Norfolk for Hamburg, several weeks ago. The youths are Herbert Coch_ran,who says he is the son of a Pitts_ burgh banker, and Walter McGirt, whose father is a well-to-do planter in North Carolina.

According to the account they have given the Federal officers, Cochran and McGirt reported their plight to the American consul immediately af_ ter the Dortmund arrived at Ham_ burg, and the consul arranged for their passage back to America on board the steamship Abessinian,which recently arrived at Philadelphia. They complained to the Federal shipping commissioner at Philadelphia, and at his instance were sent to Norfolk, ar_ riving here today in custody of Fed_ eral officers.

In default of $10,000 bond Walsh was sent to jail to await hearing. Walsh admits shipping Cochran and McGirt on the Dortmund, but denied doing so illegally.

CONVICT SYSTEM:

Educational and Co_Operative Union Members Disapprove Agreement of Prison Board.

Richmond, Feb. 7.—The fourth an_ nual convention of Virginia division of the Farmers' Educational and Co_ Operative Union of America, in session in Lynchburg, on Wednesday after_ noon adopted a set of resolutions con_ demning in unqualified terms the last general assembly of the state in not having abolished the convict labor con_ tract system in Virginia, and also the board of directors of the Virginia state prison for having entered into a con_ tract for convict labor with the Star Clothing Manufacturing Company, of St. Louis.

The farmers, of which nearly one thousand were in attendance upon the convention, are very earnest in their opposition to the system of leasing out state prisoners to private monopolies for manufacturing purposes. They strongly advocate in their resolutions the working of convicts by the state and for the state. Such has been an_ nounced as their platform and upon this platform they will either support or oppose any candidate for public office in the state.

It is understood that the Virginia Federation of Labor, of which organi_ zation several fraternal delegates were guests of the convention, will unite with the farmers in their political creed.

The resolutions, offered by Howard T. Colvin, secretary of the Virginia Federation of Labor, and adopted by the convention, are very bitter with reference to the contract just closed be ween the state of Virginia and the prison directorate of the penitentiary.

FAILS TO WED.

Norwegian Girl is Disappointed by Not Meeting Fiance.

Newport News, Va., Feb. 7.—After waiting anxiously for her fiance, whom she thought would greet her when she arrived here Sunday morning on the steamship Noruega, after making an oversea journey of nearly 3,000 miles, R kel Aanensen, a comely Norwegian girl left here last night for Chicago, where the Norwegian Women's Chris_tian Association will take charge of her.

Miss Aanensen came here to wed Carl Larsen, of Chicago, a Norweigan she had known from childhood. Their courtship had lasted for years and she made the trip, she said, according to a prearranged plan to be claimed by him as a bride.

When the Noruega docked the bride_ to-be found that not only had Larsen failed to meet her, but had made no arrangements to have any one else do so.

Being alone she faced deportation, but the special board of inquiry sum_moned by the immigration Inspector continued her case until the Chicago association of Norwegian women was communicated with. Upon the prom_ise of the association to provide the young woman a home, Miss Aanensen was allowed to remain in the United States.

Salves Can't Cure Eczema

In regard to skin diseases, medical authorities are now agreed on this: Don't imprison the disease germs in your skin by the use of greasy salves, and thus encourage them to multiply. A true cure of all eczematous diseases can be brought about only by using the healing agents in the form of a liquid.

WASH THE GERMS OUT.

A simple wash, containing all of the ingredients for a perfect cure, is D.D.D. Prescription. This penetrates to the disease germs and destroys them, then soothes and heals the skin as nothing else has ever done.

A 50 cent bottle will start the cure and give you instant relief.

We have made fast friends of more than one family by recommending this D.D.D. Prescription to a skin suf_ferer here and there, and we want you to try it now on our positive pay guar_antee. D.D.D. Soap keeps the pores

CITIZENS FAIL TO DO THEIR DUTY.

The list of delinquent voters in all cities is increasing yearly, and movements looking to bringing out suffragans—especially of a certain class—have always proven abortive. Occasionally—probaly twice in a century—the great bulk of qualified voters is brought to the polls, but a few years later the lethargy is apparent, many allowing elections to go by default, and those who are remiss in this duty as well as privilege are loudest in their inveighings against the class of men who pose as representatives of the community.

In the year 1869, when Virginia, like England before the battle of Cape Trafalgar, expected every man to do his duty, there was but a corporal's guard of white men qualified to vote who did not cast their ballots. Nearly every native of the Old Dominion wanted a part in the routing out of carpetbaggers and camp followers who were at that time endeavering to get hold of the reins of the state. The result was a landslide and the squatters with their negro allies were snowed under so deep that they have since played but a picayunish part in politics in Virginia.

This, however, was a spontaneous movement, state wide in its sweep, but the spirit of the crusade should have animated every city and town, in which event many warts which have since appeared in certain communities would never have been allowed to form.

It too often happens when communities are called upon to nominate representatives that a large percentage of taxpayers—some having large holding—remain away from the polls or "go fishing," and men, fired by ambition but lacking knowledge in political economy or anything else, are whirled into positions. It takes but a little time to show they are misfits, and those responsible for bringing about such conditions croak and lament the fact that more suitable men had not been chosen.

In connection with the above it may be said that it is the duty of every man, fitted by nature and experience, to serve his city at times.

A writer in a Baltimore paper in speaking of the evil incident to certain people remaining away from the polls and neglecting his duty to cast his vote, among otherr, makes the following suggestions:

First—In all our cities there is a large body of very intelligent men—our best thinking men—who do not register. Mainly on account of taking very little interest in election until about election day; they then wake up, but it is too late.

It has often occurred to me that if the plan of registration was changed so that these indifferent or busy men would be registered a long step for a full vote would be taken. To accomplish this my suggestion is that all persons not registered by a certain date should be visited at their place of business or residence and there registered, for which a fee of $1 shall be paid to the registrar, this process to be safeguarded.

Second— person owning a tax receipt for real estate to be allowed to vote without registration on regular registration day.

Third—A person failing to vote to appear before a designated court and give reasons for his failure to vote. He would then and there be obliged to cast his vote with the clerk of court, paying a fee ranging from $1 to $5, as the court, in its discretion, might see fit to fix.

CHILDREN VS. SIDEWALKS.
(Communicated.)

In reply to the communication in the Gazette of yesterday, signed A Friend of the Children, may I be permitted to say as a lover of children, I do not think that person has any more love for children than myself and hundreds of other property owners

Let the friend take a walk around some of the nice new sidewalks, especially on south Alfred street, between Prince and Duke, and between Wilkes and Franklin, the two new squares of sidewalks, and decide for himself if he considers roller skating a harmless sport.

The sidewalk on the last two squares mentioned was put down some tim last fall and now it is being damaged to such an extent that it has large holes in places and if such practice continues it will not be a long time before it will be completely ruined.

I would also like to ask the friend of the children, who is going to stand for these damages?

While I admit children should have places to play, the sidewalk is no place for roller skates and the children would be given certain territory as Washington did a few months ago. The authorities in that city found out that many accidents were caused so they quickly took action for the safety of the public.

I do not consider roller skating as a harmless sport, but dangerous, annoying property owenrs and a defacing nuisance.

It is also better to have baby carriages with our innocent future citizens in them, to impede us than a bunch of roller skaters to come around the corner at break neck speed.

I earnestly hope some action will be taken in the near future to abolish such so called sport nad for the protection of the comfort and safety of the public.

A CITIZEN.

Nominations Blocked.

The Senate Republicans caucused early yesterday morning for a fourth time upon the question of confirming Taft appointees and shortly afterward announced their determination to fight to the last ditch for the 1,000 or more party men who have up to this time been at the mercy of a militant band of Democratic Senators.

Accordingly the Republican leaders forced the Senate into an executive session at 12:30 o'clock, and for four hours the two sides battled over the confirmations. At exactly 4:30 p. m., the Republicans gave up and the session came to an abrupt end. Not an appointee, military or civil, was confirmed.

At the caucus the Republicans decided that an executive session should be called every day, if possible, but, lest the appropriation bills be endangered by such procedure, they authorized the appointment of a legislative committee. This committee is to be composed of five members and is to determine just how far the Republicans will be justified in going on the appointments.

Defies Death Warning.

Los Angeles, Cal., Feb. 7.—Disregarding doctor's warnings to "quit the Darrow case or die," Earl Rogers, counsel for Clarence S. Darrow, conducted the cross-examination of George N. Lockwood, a venireman, who played the principal role in the bribery indictment which abruptly ended the McNamara trial in November, 1911.

Rogers was taken ill last week and Darrow directed his own case. The doctors decided last night that unless Rogers abandoned all work he would die or lose his reason. He insisted, nevertheless, on appearing in court today.

Mylius Case Delayed.

New York, Feb. 7.—The case of Edward Mylius, convicted in England of libeling King George, and excluded from this country on that ground, was postponed for one week in the federal court today.

Application for writ of habeas corpus was to have been argued, but his counsel obtained postponement on the ground that he wished to make an application along broader lines than those set forth in the original petition.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Nineteen persns, twelve passenger and seven members of the crew, were drowned this morning, when the schooner Granada was wrecked off Greytown, Nicaragua.

The Stewart bill, which prohibits the marriage of blacks and whites, is meeting with sharp disapproval from the colored contingents of Wisconsin. The Booker Washington Men's Forum of Milwaukee has petitioned the members of the Legislature against the proposed law, branding is as a "vicious attempt at class legislation, contrary to the political and civil economy of our republican institutions." Assemblyman T. A. Stewart declares that he introduced the measure to prevent marriages "like that of 'Jack' Johnson and the Cameron girl.

A mob, demonstrating in the interest of garment workers on strike from shops in the Williamsburg section of Brooklyn, employed a bomb as a weapon in their warfare yesterday. Edward Hartman and John Hopp, two special officers, guarding a shop affected by the strike, were seriously hurt by glass and scrap iron from the infernal machine. The explosion wrecked the front of the building, and precipitated a panic among the operatives. A police sergeant and five patrolmen were beaten by the mob. Reserves arrived in a patrol wagon, and dispersed the strikers after a struggle, in which five men and two girls were made prisoners.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, Feb. 7.—Representative Carlin today introduced a bill in the House to pay to the estate of Murray Mason, deceased, late of Fairfax county, the sum of $3,000. The money is for property taken by the military forces of the United States for the use of the army during the civil war.

Senator Martin today introduced an amendement in the Senate to the army appropriation bill to appropriate the sum of $5,000,000 to contsruct a memorial bridge across the Potomac river. The senator's amendment is similar in detail to the bill which Representative Carlin has had pending in the House for sometime to construct a bridge across the Potomac.

Bids are to be asked for shortly for the work of dredging the Virginia channel of the Potomac river above the Highway Bridge. Col. Longfitt, United States Engineer officer, is here, it is stated, is at work on the specifications. It it about five years since the last dredging was done, at the end of which the channel was 22 feet deep at low tide. At present in some places the channel is only 17 feet deep. At one place, opposite seventeenth street, one of these shoals spots extend 100 yards.Dredging is necessary to allow coal-carrying vessels from New England ports to go up the river to Georgetown.

Trust is Dissolved.

Detroit, Feb. 7.—"The boot and shoe last trust," fixing, it is alleged, the price of practically every last sold in the United States, was dissolved here today, by the federal government in quick time.

Castro To Stay Awhile.

New York, Feb. 7.—No matter what decision the federal district court makes in the case of Cipriano Castro, ex-persident of Venezuela, seeking to enter this country, Castro will remain either in New York or at Ellis Island for some time to come, "possibly as lon gas a year," according to Harold A Content, his lawyer.

Loss by Fire, $225,000.

Peoria, Ill., Feb. 7.—Damage estimated at $225,000 was done today when fire destroyed the wheelhouse, grinding house, steelroom and blacksmith shop of the Avery Manufacturing Company.

Refused to Make Affidavit.

Commissioner of Police Waldo of New York, confronted with the confession of one of his most trusted captains, Thomas F. Walsh, whose story of grafting has pushed the police "system" to the edge of panic, has made desperate efforts both to cleanse the force of the grafters, and to protect higher officials from Walsh's accusations. Waldo yesterday dispatched Deputy Commissioner Newburger to Walsh's home, to learn from Walsh if it was true, as reported, that he had confessed to District Attorney Whitman. Walsh told Newburger he had collected not less than $200,000 in four years from disorderly resorts, naming as receivers of graft money Inspector Sweeney and Captains Hussey and Thompson, and sent Newburger back to the Walsh home, where Walsh lies ill, to get a sworn affidavit, presumably to protect certain officials at police headquarters.

While Newburger was endeavoring to persuade Walsh to make such an affidavit, District Attorney Whitman entered the room. Newburger flew in to a rage, and declared he must obey Waldo's orders. Whitman advised Walsh not to make the affidavit. Walsh drew himself up in bed, flatly refused to make the affidavit and in effect ordered Newburger to leave the house.
